

The Creo Mundi Story

What began as a simple idea birthed by long time close friends Alison Prentice and Jocelyn Herrett on February 9, 2007 has made a global impact since then and continues to unfold with just as much flow and synchronicity as ever.

Creo Mundi, a company that uses the power of affirmative words in 15 different languages inside of clothing and on their consumable products, is doing its part to shift consciousness globally. Company founders Alison Prentice & Jocelyn Herrett are a dynamic, energized duo who, continue to defy the odds and shift paradigms as they create, market and sell products under the Creo Mundi brand name throughout their native Canada and beyond.

Inspired by some of the great thought leaders of today, including Dr. Masuru Emoto and his Messages from Water, Creo Mundi products are a celebration of the human spirit and life itself. Creo Mundi, which literally means "Create Your Universe," is out to change lives and empower people to love and nurture themselves and one another like never before. Every clothing item has hundreds of uplifting words printed on the inside...words like energy, greatness, harmony, joy, prosperity, strength and unity. The items can also be worn inside out to inspire every individual who is embraced by them.

The vision of Creo Mundi is to create a world of inclusion where people feel compassion and love for themselves and others by being surrounded by uplifting and high frequency words and messages. The company was founded on the belief that being saturated and immersed in this type of environment will help raise awareness and vibrational energy on the planet and reinforce peaceful thinking and bring greater joy to all humanity.

People from all walks of life and range of ages have experienced thought changing events by wearing Creo Mundi clothing and consuming the protein products the company makes. Feedback from their fans has inspired a next generation of Creo Mundi products, which will eventually include bed linens, sleepwear and maternity clothing to bring good vibes while sleeping and also to Mother and her child in utero.

Living powerfully and drinking life out of every moment to leave a legacy of love and integrity are what drive Prentice, Herrett and their team. Creo Mundi is an idea and a company whose time has come as we continue to awaken globally to a new world and a new way of living.
